

«Cities. multimodal – urban transport system in transition towards low carbon mobility»

PSKOV is THE FIRST RUSSIAN CITY for which the Sustainable Development Plan till 2030 was developed

PSKOV

The plan for sustainable development of the city of Pskov until 2030 is aimed at improving the quality of people's life of by creating a safe urban environment that meets the interests and needs of residents. This plan is based on a holistic approach, integrating the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), contributes to the creation of an affordable and comfortable city that provides access to a high-quality urban environment, where active urban life, innovation and culture are developing.

